

Acts Made Actual (reprint)

Don DeWalt

You might be familiar with this book and its author. Generations of Bible students have used DeWalt's commentary on Acts for college, group and personal study. LATM helped Ajai Lall (Central India Christian Mission) print it in 1995. At that time, it was the first Hindi commentary on Acts. He said then,

This will be a milestone. This has been the wish of our evangelical leaders to have this book and it has been the answer of our prayers. It will give directions to our present churches to become mature and follow the blueprint given by God. It will help new Christians grow in maturity. It will be a great tool in training new leaders from the Bible Colleges and training Centers. And this book will be here all over even when all of us are gone – until Jesus comes back.

Acts Made Actual in Hindi is a complete translation of the text and maps, plus all the illustrations. Ajai says, There has been a great need to make commentaries available in Hindi. This publication will help a new generation of thousands of preachers, evangelists and Bible College students to understand the Book of Acts and especially the New Testament Church. We have received several requests to reprint this.

December gifts to the Book Club will bless Hindi speaking church leaders in India with this important commentary on Acts.
