Our field partner V. Benni has been working to translate and publish the entire College Press series Bible Student Study Guides for Tamil Christians. These three titles will almost complete the entire commentary set on the New Testament.

The set is “almost complete” because, after these three are printed, the remaining title will be part two of the lessons on Luke. It was never written when College Press published the series. Benni said the solution will be to have a group of Tamil Bible professors write it! That is an encouraging sign of the church’s development in Southeast India. Benni tells us that these verse-by-verse studies are used at pastors fellowships, in Sunday schools for youth and adults, and for home Bible studies. Many people need Bible study literature, he says, and these books enrich believers as they understand the gospel of Christ.

LATM has helped Benni with many other books in the Bible Student Study Guides, including reprints, for Tamil churches. The Book Club has helped fund several of them. These are covers of earlier titles in the series:
