

The Genesis Account Jonathan Safarti

Genesis chapters 1-11 are some of the most well-known in all of Scripture, and they are often the most attacked due to prevailing “scientific” views of history. They are foundational passages that speak of the Creator God, his plan for humanity, the entrance of sin and death into a once-perfect world, and judgment via a global flood. After the Flood, there was the Babel dispersion, explaining the origin of language families and people groups. The consistent thread in these historical chapters, which The Genesis Account highlights, leads to the Messiah, God’s Lamb.

Sergei Golovin, LATM field partner, wants your help with this project because the book is a comprehensive, integral study of the foundational part of the Bible that is actively rejected by atheists and liberal theologians. Both camps are currently published in former Soviet Union countries. Our preachers, teachers, and church leaders desperately need a solid Biblical foundation to resist those ideas. The book is an amazing resource that meets that need perfectly.

Your Book Club gift in May will help put 1000 copies of this book to work in former Soviet Union countries.
